

TDA NAMES NEW EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Wednesday, May 2, 2007

Craig Thompson, former legislative director of the Wisconsin Counties Association, has been named executive director of the Transportation Development Association of Wisconsin.

Thompson, who replaces Bob Cook, was responsible for overseeing the legislative agenda at the counties association, including highway and transit programs.

The TDA represents more than 400 members including business, labor, governmental units, organizations and individuals.